

Honest Words: A Young Persons Story and Guide to Cancer Survivorship

What are your memories of being a twenty-one-year-old? Some were in university, starting a job, in a relationship, moving away from home, enjoying the freedom of young adulthood, or figuring out the purpose of life. When I was twenty-one, I was fighting cancer. And now, a few years into survivorship, I am obliged to have many friends like you-whose futures will be forever changed by cancer-looking for honest words.
